About the Organizing Colleges

Sree Chaitanya Mahavidyalaya

Sree Chaitanya Mahavidyalaya (formerly Sree Chaitanya College of Commerce) was established in 1965. Located in a semi-urban area, this co-educational college chiefly caters to the need of students hailing from economically weaker and underprivileged section of the society. The motivating spirit of the founders was the felt need of providing higher education to the people of this area. The college is affiliated to the West Bengal State University. The University Grants Commission also recognized the college under Section 12 B and Section 2 F. National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) visited our college on September 26-28, 2016. In its report the visiting Peer Team appreciated the overall performance of the college and graded 'B' in its evaluation scale. This is the second cycle accreditation. The college is well connected by train and surface transport, situated on Jessore Road (N.H.35), easily accessible both from Habra Railway Station and Ashoknagar Road Railway Station. The ambience of the college is full of lush green, extremely pleasant and serene.

Domkal Girls' College

Domkal Girls' College was established in the year 2011 with the mission of imparting education to girls of the district of Murshidabad. The College is to make education available to all girls irrespective of caste, creed, socio – economic status. Domkal Girls' College has a moto of making girls self-sufficient and developing in them the ability to choose and not be dictated by others. It has 10 departments. The College is affiliated to Kalyani University.
